2024 Class Preparation Page - for ONLINE and IN-PERSON classes

Art Merit Badge

Expectations

- Read and Review ALL requirements prior to the class
Even though a requirement may be identified as one to be done in class, Scouts are still expected to familiarize, review, and prepare for the requirement – BE PREPARED!
- Active interaction/participation is expected and mandatory.
- Share in your own words – avoid reading your answers.
- Pay attention to the action verbs.
- Bring proof of completion (even partially completed work)

Things to Remember to Bring

1. Your BSA ID# and /or your Merit Badge Blue Card properly filled out and signed off by your Scout Leader
2. Scout Uniform
3. Notes and Questions from reading the Art Merit Badge Pamphlet
4. Scouts should consider bringing a smock or an old shirt for in-class project work
5. Supporting documentation or project work pertinent to this merit badge which may also include a Merit Badge Workbook for reference with notes.
6. A positive Scouting focus and attitude

| 6 | This requirement must be done outside of the class and may be done prior to or after the class. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Scouts may work on this requirement prior to the class, but please note that the counselor reserves the right to accept or deny your work on the basis of meeting the expectations of this requirement to their satisfaction.• Scouts should bring proof (a note signed by the host, a parent, teacher, Scoutmaster, or other) to help validate their completion of the visit noted in this requirement. Ideally the note could / should be signed by someone from the museum, gallery, exhibit, or workshop visited. Pictures and items from the visit are an ideal way to capture this experience and will help enhance the presentation and discussion with the counselor and other Scouts in the class |

Merit Badge Workbooks are a tool to aid Scouts with their work preparation. BSA discourages — but does not ban — the use of any merit badge worksheets or workbooks. Merit badge counselors must NEVER require the use of merit badge worksheets or workbooks and may if they choose, refuse to accept them. Scouts shall not be required to use ANY of these to complete a merit badge.
